BOOK REVIEWS

This department of the New Haven Genealogical Magazine offers to compilers and publishers of genealogical books the opportunity to secure fair and honest reviews of their productions. The reviewer will do his utmost to point out the good features of every book which is presented for review, but in fairness to readers will mention striking deficiencies, such as the lack of an index, unusually poor arrangement of material, or gross inaccuracies. Those who wish books reviewed should send one copy to the address below.

KELSEY A Genealogy of the Descendants of William Kelsey, Volume II. By Edward A. Claypool and Azalea Clizbee and concluded by Earl Leland Kelsey from data collected by many. Edited by Chester Caulfield Kelsey. Ten illustrations, three maps. Pub. 1929. 424 p. 8°. Order from Dwight C. Kelsey, 53 Hillcrest Ave., Hamden, Conn. Price, $7.25 postpaid.

The second volume of this work maintains the high standard set by the first, and indicates to an even greater extent the tremendous amount of work that has been required to collect these records and prepare them for publication. The present volume is devoted to the fifth and sixth generations, including the births of the children of the seventh generation. On some lines this brings the work down to the births of Kelseys who are still living, while in other branches intervening generations have still to appear.

The pictures of old Kelsey houses and sawmills increases the attractiveness of this second volume, which genealogically shows the same conscientious care which we found pleasure in commending in our review of the first volume.

The index is quite adequate and fills nearly fifty pages. On the female lines, among the families to which considerable space is devoted are Chapman, Griswold, Hubbard, Hull, Lane, Stevens, and Wilcox.

The format of the book is the same as that of the first volume, and the difference in price is caused by the larger number of pages in this volume. The work is recommended to genealogical libraries, and Kelsey descendants should be eager to buy each volume as it appears. The second volume does not complete the work, and the backers of the publication are underwriting a large expense, in the discharging of which all members of the family should share to the extent of purchasing copies.
